No-code framework

Tired of complex, time-consuming integrations? No-code framework by LINK! is here to change that.

Effortless data migration and embedded integrations, powered by LINK!'s groundbreaking architecture and AI capabilities, tailored for retail, restaurant, and service platforms.

Say goodbye to complex, time-consuming integration processes. The no-code framework by LINK! automates your data integration needs, allowing you to connect platforms, APIs, and systems in minutes—without writing a single line of code.

Whether you're working with cloud services, legacy systems, or custom-built applications, our framework generates fully compatible, secure code tailored to your requirements.

"You are not writing code, neither are we"

Why No-code framework?

Save Time
Automate integration tasks and focus on growth.

Stay Current
Receive automatic updates for API changes and security patches

Scale with Ease
Add connectors effortlessly as your business evolves.